

Diversity and Economic Development: Building Springfield's Future

Please join church leaders, minority business owners and civic/government officials from 9 am to 1 pm, Sat., Feb. 27, to discuss why a lack of economic opportunities makes Springfield unattractive to some minorities, why lack of diversity is hurting our area economy, and how we can move forward as a community.

The conference, which is free, will be at Missouri State University's Meyer Library Auditorium, Room 101. Free parking is available in the parking garage at Holland and Grand on the MSU campus. For more information, call (417) 868-8520.
